

Wisconsin ODD FELLOW

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE GRAND LODGE OF WISCONSIN

WELCOME AUTUMN!

TO BE READ IN ALL ODD FELLOW LODGES: GRAND MASTER’S LETTER

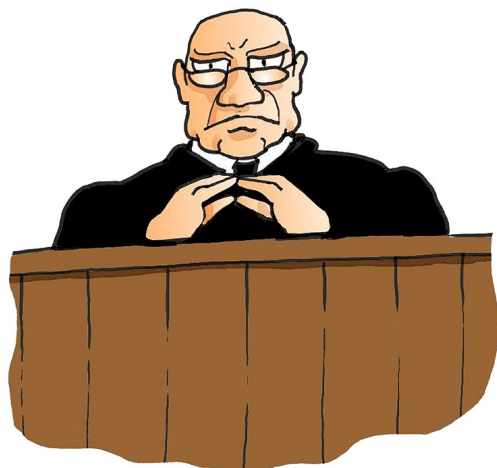

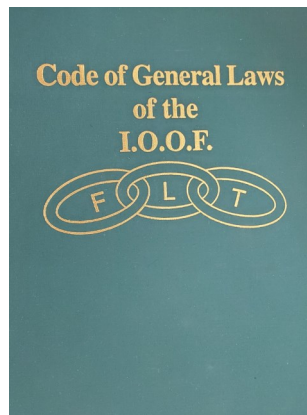

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In my communication with you this month, I want to let you know of one very important change that happened at Sovereign Grand Lodge Sessions. I want to make sure you all know that Chapter XXXVIII Offenses and Trials in the Code of General Laws of the I.O.O.F., otherwise known as the big green book, has been totally redone as in take the old Chapter pages out, throw those away and start all over. The first thing to know is Sovereign Grand Lodge, I.O.O.F. shall administer trials for all Units of the Order and the second thing is this chapter goes into effect September 1, 2022. There is a moratorium for changes to this Chapter for 3 years. Sovereign Grand Lodge will cover the cost of the trial. I am hoping we do not need to use this chapter, but I also don’t want anyone getting in trouble for not following the new Chapter XXXVIII.

There are other bills that were passed, but I will let the representatives tell you all about the rest of Sovereign Grand Lodge sessions.

Bye, for now, until my next communication letter.

In F, L, T,
Jeffery Jones
Grand Master
Grand Lodge of WI

GRAND SECRETARY'S LETTER

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

I hope that everyone had a good summer and were able to do some visiting with family. Dick and I had a great time with our daughter and family. It was great to see them. They get to visit once a year when the kids are out of school for their long vacation.

It is hard to believe that Zachary is now in year 5 and Gemma is in year 3. Time sure does fly!

My hope this fall is that all lodges get back to doing community activities and helping one another. If you have had a community activity, lodge gathering, etc. please send pictures with the names of the people in the picture and an article or note stating what it is about. If you are going to have an activity, please let us know in advance and we will put it on the Coming Events Calendar.

The Scholarship information will be sent to your Lodge Secretaries later this month. Please take time to look at this information packet. It will contain our Grand Lodge Scholarship information and information on all the various scholarships, grants and Loans available from The Sovereign Grand Lodge. Make as many copies of the information as you need. If you know of a young person that is in college and needs a little help The Sovereign Grand Lodge has a lot of programs for helping. There are specific scholarships for different vocations so please make sure you look at all that is in the packet when it arrives.

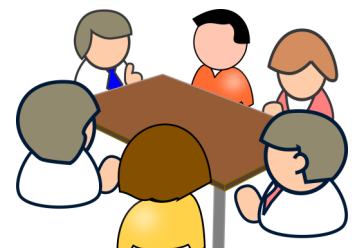

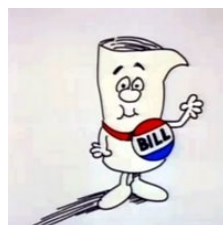

At the International Press Association meetings, held during Sovereign Grand Lodge, The Wisconsin Odd Fellow took First Place-In House Monthly. Congratulations, Teresa for improving our paper so that it is once again at the top! Also, at these meetings Sister Joyce Proulx was elected Vice-President of the Association.

At the Grand Secretaries/Grand Scribes/Department Adjutants Association we discussed some of the bills that were in for adoption. Most of them covered the removal of the Ladies Auxiliary Patriarchs Militant from the code as the LAPM and the Department Council have merged. Also, at the meeting Sister Joyce Proulx, Grand Secretary, was reelected as Secretary/Treasurer of the Association.

Until next time,
In Friendship, Love and Truth,
Joyce Proulx
Grand Secretary

GRAND CHAPLAIN'S LETTER

Proverbs 17:17

A friend loves at all times and a brother is born for adversity

Proverbs 17:18

A man is void of understanding striketh hands and becomes surety in the presence of his friend.

Proverbs 18:24

A man of many companions may come to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Proverbs 17:9

Whoever covers an offense seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates close friends

Proverbs 22:24-27

Make no friendship with a man given to anger, nor go with a wrathful man, lest you learn his ways and entangle yourself in a snare. Be not one of those who give pledges, who put up security for debts. If you have nothing with which to pay, why should your bed be taken from under you?

Dear Lord,

You loved your friends and demonstrated acceptance, encouragement,

Thank you for the friends you have given me.

For the peace in finding love, for the rest found in knowing acceptance, for the blessing found in being encouraged.

Lord, I give you my friend and ask that they may know your peace, rest and blessing, and love in their lives.

Amen

NEWS FROM THE ACTIVITY DEPARTMENT

Hello, and Happy Autumn! Yes, Fall is almost here already. Where did the summer go? Now it's time for Packers football, cooler weather and colored leaves. This month we will be working on Fall crafts and Expressive Art projects. The Packer games begin and we continue to follow the Brewers. We add "A Taste of Fall" to the calendar where we make and sample treats that are usually a more Autumn kind of taste such as apples, pumpkin and cinnamon spice. As the trees start turning we will plan a fall bus ride to take it all in.

During the month there is musical entertainment by Tom's Tunes, John & Cass, and Eddie Biebel. Pastor David Gallagher will be in to provide Christian music. Maureen Kane will be in to play the keyboard. Tonya Kehler will be here to do an Art class with both Odd fellows and Rebekah Haven.

Some of the special dates include Labor Day on the 5th and Grandparent's Day on the 11th. We celebrate Assisted Living week September 11-17 with Rebekah Haven. The first regular season Packer Game is on the 11th which is always a good reason to have a tailgate party. Autumn officially begins on September 22nd. On September 24th the Alzheimer's Association will have their Walk to Remember at Lambeau. Odd Fellow's is getting a team together for the walk.

We are already looking ahead to next month for our annual Trick-or-Treat Event. It is always a fun event for residents and families to attend. If you are interested in donating candy for the event we would greatly appreciate it.

Happy Fall to All!

Cindy Czechanski,
Activity Director

NEWS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Hello All!

The summer has come and gone before we could even blink our eyes. As we transition into my favorite season of the year, autumn is a reminder that change can be a beautiful thing.

We are busy with bringing positive changes to OFRHA. There have been a couple personnel changes that will help poise OFRHA for a successful future. While we are sad to part ways with those individuals, we know that seasons change and OFRHA is about to embark on its new season.

We are in the process of making a couple software upgrades to give our staff more time to spend with the residents. We will be bringing back the annual picnic for staff at the end of August as a last hoorah to the summer and a chance to let off some steam that we have built up over the past two years. We had great support and sponsorship from our vendors.

We have a new therapy company, Select Rehab, starting September 1st. We are very excited to partner with them. In the coming months, I can share how the therapy transition has benefited the residents, staff, and OFRHA as a whole.

Blessings,
Dan-a

Independent Order of Odd Fellows

Committee on Membership

“A program of The Sovereign Grand Lodge and the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies to Obtain Membership Gains in all Units of all Branches of the Family of Odd Fellowship”

July 2022

Greetings to each and every Brother and Sister,

Hope all are enjoying the summer with your families, friends, and members of our fraternity. Very hard to believe how quickly this year is passing, seemingly in a flash. Our leaders in all branches of the Order, who have been busy charting the course for the organization, will be completing their responsibilities in the near term, and we will soon begin anew with their successors in place. Another cycle of fraternal leadership transpiring for well over 200 consecutive years; now that is continuity of structure.

In reflection on my role in advancing ideas for our membership needs, I hope my efforts and articles have provided some new strategies, directions, insight, inspiration, and have given you thoughts to consider when incorporating membership development on the home front. Setting goals to get us on a healthier track for continued longevity should be an emphasis shared amongst all units. The task of outlining a necessary path for growth is most important. Designing and executing plans for recruiting members should be a common aspiration for our fraternal organization to have a beneficial impact on generations to come. Being mindful of our changing world, planning for tomorrow’s expectations, keeping fully aware and active in maintaining growth and stability are ways to take hold and ensure a viable long-term future. No doubt we have prospered for a considerable period of time thus far; however, to keep our future robust and bright, appreciable growth must occur virtually across the board, geographically and purposefully. A fundamental virtue of our order, to improve and elevate the character of mankind, needs to be methodically promoted for success in attracting new members and sustaining existing members.

While there has been growth and expansion on some fronts, we have seen consolidations and losses. Significant challenges still remain which are generalized, pervasive and persist nonetheless. We must strive for an increased presence and establish a fuller integration within our communities for truly effective recruitment. Working together to offer members quality life enriching experiences and memories helps provide a sense of purpose. In this busy and complex world of our present-day society, it’s sometimes easy to innocently overlook the needs of others. We should not only be visible and relevant, but thoughtful about taking good care of our members and the ones they love. Having a positive outlook on our future lends a personal satisfaction in developing partnerships and giving service to others offers benevolence. The point is to literally open our doors, greeting and making new members feel valued, included, and respected.

If your lodge is experiencing losses or having difficulty building membership, examine and reevaluate the essentials being offered, and opportunities provided. Keep communication lines open using emails, newsletters, bulletin boards, postal services and social media. Ensure retention and growth by providing members a meaningful experience, so they feel good about themselves and enjoy working with those who surround them while achieving the goodwill goals set by the lodge. If your lodge or jurisdiction is experiencing growth, share your ideas and successes with others and offer guidance. The mystique and camaraderie amongst a few alone will not sustain us. Togetherness of members, members, members is the key!

Increase our attractiveness through education by linking current and perspective members to the World of Odd Fellowship, which goes beyond the walls and confines of the lodge hall. Odd Fellowship and what it represents is not singular in nature, but is multifaceted, offering diverse programs with shared interests worldwide. Lodges should be modestly proud of its members in and of their own right, and they should embrace the added value in being part of a comprehensive fraternal organization “Making a Difference” on a grand scale. An awareness of knowing that peers all around our country and internationally are similarly minded provides a source of reassurance and serves to validate our obligations.

Create a membership committee in your lodge that educates your members and add “membership” to your lodge meetings order of business. Conduct membership drives at your community fundraisers. Ask for support from your jurisdiction’s Grand Lodge officers and request membership materials provided by The Sovereign Grand Lodge. Encourage your Grand Lodge to offer membership workshops during annual sessions if possible. Successes of membership growth could be recognized by Grand Lodges with a Certificate of Commendation the Grand Master or The Sovereign Grand Lodge dignitaries could present at visitations. Recognize your Odd Fellow’s and Rebekah’s of the year, so members will learn of good deeds and significant contributions from adjacent lodges. Share extraordinary acts of Odd Fellowship occurring in their midst, which may spark ideas they wish to emulate or activities to embark upon.

In closing, I wish to express my most sincere gratitude to Sovereign Grand Master Chuck for this honored opportunity to serve on membership. Promoting Odd Fellowship is a worthy endeavor and demonstrating recruitment efforts is an investment in our future growth. Set the example for Friendship, Love and Truth; Faith, Hope, and Charity; and Universal Justice; words to live by and words to grow with.

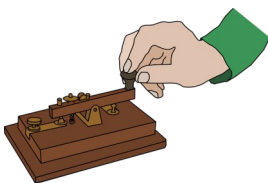

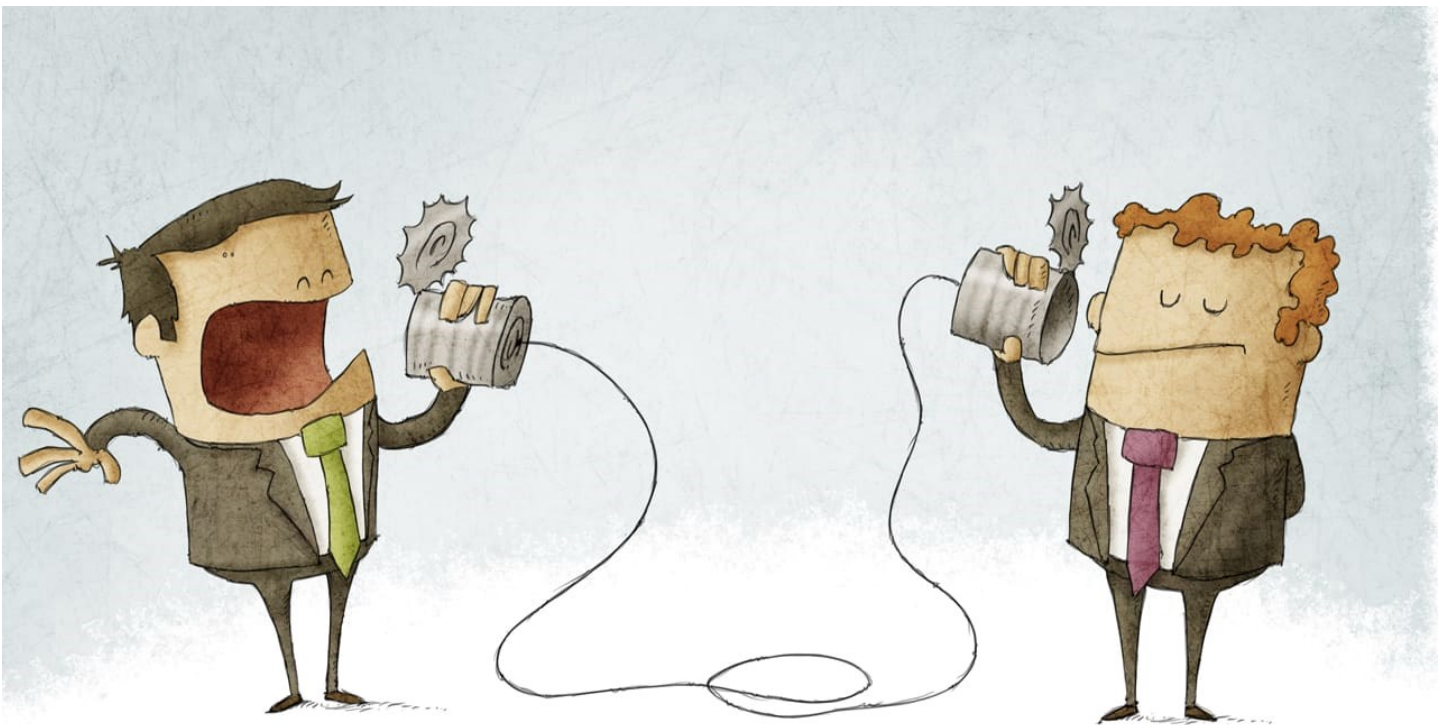

With warmest fraternal regards,

Robert L Kowalski, PGM

July 2022

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

The IOOF Pilgrimage for Youth program will begin in Philadelphia on July 9! This is our first tour since 2019 due to Covid-19. It has been a long three years, but we are ready to get our program back on track. We have 84 delegates from 23 jurisdictions that will be representing our Order as they learn about diversity, culture, team building, giving back and friendship, love and truth! Our main objective is to bring students from various backgrounds to learn to work together to build a better world.

If you did not sponsor a student(s) this year, please consider doing so next year. Now is the time to start. When you sponsor a student for the Pilgrimage you are sponsoring an ambassador for our Order. If you want to build your membership, start with the youth. They are the gateway to our future. If you have questions or concerns, feel free to contact me anytime.

It is almost time to start our tour. Your prayers for the safety and well-being of our students and staff would be much appreciated.

I want to again thank each and every one of you for your support for the Pilgrimage for Youth program. Your time and effort in finding delegates and supporting those delegates is greatly appreciated. Thank you!!!

In Friendship, Love and Truth,

Leonard Bolton

Crescent Roll Apple Dumplings

All you need is 10 minutes to prepare them, and then into the oven they go. Make these crescent roll apple dumplings next time as a surprise sweet dish for your breakfast table, or bring them over to a friend's house for brunch.

5 from 2 votes

Course: Breakfast, Brunch, Dessert Cuisine: American Prep Time: 10 minutes
Cook Time: 35 minutes Total Time: 45 minutes Servings: 8

Ingredients

- 2 cans (8 each) refrigerated crescent roll dough
- 2 sticks of butter
- 1 1/2 cups brown sugar
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- 1 can (12oz) 7 Up or Mountain Dew
- 2 large Granny Smith apples, peeled, cored, and sliced

Instructions

1. Preheat the oven to 350° F. Unroll the crescent roll dough and place one slice of apple at the thickest part and roll-up.
2. Place the rolled dumplings in a greased baking dish.
3. Add the butter, vanilla, cinnamon, and brown sugar to a small saucepan over medium heat and melt the butter and stir everything together.
4. Pour the melted butter mixture over the dumplings.
5. Pour the can of 7-UP around the dumplings (not on top) and bake in the oven for 35 minutes.
6. Serve immediately.
